

ANNOUNCEMENT

John C. McMeekin II has been elected Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section

John C. McMeekin II

John C. McMeekin II, a member of Rawle & Henderson LLP's Executive Committee, was officially elected Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section (TIPS) at the ABA Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois, on August 5, 2018. He will become Chair of ABA TIPS in August 2020.

Mr. McMeekin follows a long line of Rawle & Henderson partners who have dedicated themselves to the profession and to service with the ABA. In 1878, Francis Rawle, a leader of the Rawle law offices, became one of the founders of the American Bar Association, and its first secretary and treasurer. In 1902, Francis Rawle became the American Bar Association's president. More recently, Peter J. Neeson, Chair of Rawle & Henderson's Environmental, Toxic and Mass Torts Group, served as Chair of ABA TIPS and in 2012 received its most prestigious honor, the James K. Carroll Award for outstanding leadership qualities and service.

The American Bar Association is committed to supporting the legal profession with practical resources for legal professionals while improving the administration of justice, accrediting law schools and establishing model ethical codes. The ABA has nearly 400,000 members today. The ABA TIPS section was established in 1932 and is composed of nearly 18,000 lawyers, judges, law students and non-lawyers who are committed to providing a source of knowledge and leadership on trial practice and critical issues of justice in the areas of tort and insurance law. In addition, ABA TIPS has 32 general committees focused on substantive areas of law and practice.

Mr. McMeekin has also served as a Council Member, Section Secretary, the Section Revenue Officer, Chair of the Toxic Tort & Environmental Law Committee, Chair of the International Law Committee, and Chair of the CLE Board. He is currently co-chairing the Corporate Counsel Initiative Task Force. In addition to his service with the American Bar Association, Mr. McMeekin chaired the Philadelphia Bar Association Environmental and Toxic Tort Law Committee and has been a member of the Delaware Valley Environmental Inn of Court.

Mr. McMeekin is a partner in Rawle & Henderson LLP's Philadelphia office. He represents clients as local, national and trial counsel in environmental, toxic and mass torts product and related class actions, products liability, insurance coverage and aviation litigation. He graduated magna cum laude from the University of Baltimore School of Law. John is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland and related U.S. District Courts as well as the Supreme Court of the United States. He has been published in professional and law review journals on a variety of topics related to toxic tort and environmental litigation throughout the United States and at law schools in Japan, China and Korea. His significant cases can be found in the BNA Law Reports and Law 360. He has volunteered as an emergency medical technician and is a volunteer firefighter with HazMat certification. He has been rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell and has been repeatedly selected as a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer.
