

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

ADDITIONS

Inder Deep Paul joined Rawle & Henderson's Harrisburg office as an associate.

He concentrates his law practice in the area of commercial motor vehicle defense.

PAUL

Paul earned his law degree from the Widener Law Commonwealth in 2016.

He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania.

SPEAKERS

Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young partner Nicole Trudeau presented at the Institutional Investor Legal Forum's

winter roundtable on March 1 at the Harvard Club of New York City.

Trudeau's panel, "Appraisal Actions: a Deeper Dive," discussed the advantages, limitations and pitfalls of mutual funds exercising their appraisal rights as minority shareholders in going private, other corporate transactions, as well as the issues in-house counsel needs to consider in pursuing such litigation.

Trudeau represents investment companies including open- and closed-end funds as well as exchange-traded funds, other pooled investment vehicles such as business development companies and their independent board members, as well as investment advisers on matters arising under U.S. federal securities laws, particularly the Investment Company Act of 1940.

H. Jeffrey Brahin was a course planner for the Bucks County Bar Association's first business law institute, held on March 2.

The event featured a keynote address by Judge Robert J. Mellon, as well as 10 CLE courses, including courses on unfair competition, equity-based compensation, restrictive covenants and business succession planning.

Brahin concentrates his practice in the area of real estate and commercial litigation, as well as transactional real estate, corporate and general civil litigation.

ELECTED AND APPOINTED

Erin Kernan Aronson of Eastburn and Gray was elected to the board of directors of the YWCA Bucks County.

Aronson's law practice at the firm includes labor and employment; education and school law; and real estate.

She represents clients in various industries including business, banking, education and real estate.

She earned her bachelor's from the University of Delaware and her law degree from Villanova University School of Law.

EVENTS

The Dauphin County Bar Association, Widener Law Commonwealth's Law and Government Institute and the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors are set to present the program, "Opioid Epidemic: Law and Policy" March 29 at Widener.

The half-day program is scheduled to address the legal implications of the opioid epidemic that is sweeping the country and policy responses.

Three CLE credits are available. •