

The 2011 Andrew Hamilton Benefit was held on Saturday, Nov. 19 at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. At the event, from left to right, are: John S. Summers; co-chair of the benefit; Wendy Beetlestone, president of the Philadelphia Bar Foundation; and John E. Savoth, chancellor-elect of the Philadelphia Bar Association and co-chair of the benefit.

ADDITIONS

Andrea M. Guttridge, a 2010 graduate of the Widener University School of Law, has joined Rawle & Henderson's Philadelphia office, where she will focus her practice in the area of workers' compensation. She comes from the firm of White & Williams.

EVENTS

Philadelphia VIP sponsored the eighth annual Corporate Pro Bono Day at Morgan Lewis & Bockius on Oct. 25, 2011. With support from sponsors, the event provided microentrepreneurs the opportunity to discuss immediate and ongoing legal matters with corporate counsel from various Philadelphia-area businesses at no cost.

Host Morgan Lewis provided a free continuing legal education seminar on the essential legal needs of small businesses for volunteer counsel. Attorneys at Morgan Lewis served as co-counsel in conjunction with volunteer in-house attorneys during the clinic.

The Association of Corporate Counsel, Delaware Valley Chapter sponsored a full-day legal program for over 85 Overbrook High School students for Nov. 7 that was hosted by PECO at its Philadelphia offices. Volunteer attorneys from approximately 25 Delaware Valley companies taught the students about contracts, employment and copyright law through interactive workshops as part of the Street Law / ACC Corporate Legal Diversity Pipeline Program.

The workshops were a follow-up to lessons taught by DELVACCA members at Overbrook High School during October and November. The classes included a mock negotiation of a sneaker endorsement contract for an athlete, the mock deposition of a terminated employee and a mock trial involving an artist who used the photograph of President Obama to create the "Hope" poster.

Stevens & Lee shareholder Paul H. Schieber presented at the National Credit Reporting Association Annual Conference from Nov. 9 to 11 in New Orleans.

In his presentation, Schieber discussed ongoing Dodd-Frank financial reforms, such as new credit score disclosures, the final rule for loan originator compensation and activation of the new oversight agency, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, among others.

ELECTED AND APPOINTED

Cozen O'Connor attorney Susan S. Healey was elected to the executive committee of the Real Property Section of the Philadelphia Bar Association.

Healey is an associate in Cozen O'Connor's real estate practice group. She has experience representing companies and pension trusts in creating joint ventures for the purpose of acquiring and developing commercial property. •

The Legal Intelligencer cordially invites managing partners or executive committee members to the annual PaLAW Managing Partners Breakfast. The event will be held Friday, Dec. 9 from 8 to 9:30 a.m. at Top of the Tower, Three Logan Square, 1717 Arch Street in Philadelphia. Ward Bower of Altman Weil will be presenting results from the Managing Partners Survey.

Please RSVP to Diane McCollum at 215-557-2335 or dmccollum@alm.com