EVENTS

Drexel University's Earle Mack School of Law and the Laurence A. Baiada Center for Entrepreneurship at Drexel's Lebow College of Business are sponsoring "Trademarks for Startups: An Entrepreneurial Law Clinic Workshop," a workshop covering the legal aspects of choosing company names, brand names and product names. The event will take place from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Laurence A. Baiada Center for Entrepreneurship, 3225 Arch St., ground floor, Philadelphia.

Panelists will include students Hans Smith and Colleen Swim from the law school's entrepreneurial law clinic, attorney Andrew Baer of Baer Crossey and professor Karl Okamoto.

Register at www.baiadacenter.com/calendar. For additional information, contact Terri Zobel at terriz@drexel.edu.

Aaron Kintu Moses, of the Jewish community of Uganda, will discuss the legal hurdles that he has had to overcome in championing joint Abayudaya-Kulana education and sustainable development projects at an event co-sponsored by the Barristers Association of Philadelphia and the Brandeis Law Society (and hosted by Marathon Grill) from 6 to 8 p.m. Nov. 8 at 1818 Market St., seventh floor, Philadelphia.

Register by Nov. 1 for a discounted rate of $36 per person; after Nov. 1, the rate will be $40. The price includes a 1-hour substantive CLE credit and hors d'oeuvres. For further information, or to RSVP, please contact Tina Velez at velez@blankrome.com or 215-569-5500 ext. 4032.

The Lawyers' Club of Philadelphia is hosting a reception from 5:45 to 7 p.m. Monday at the Union League of Philadelphia, 140 S. Broad St., Philadelphia. The event will honor the judiciary of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and the Municipal Court. Special recognition will be given to Judges D. Webster Keogh, Kevin M. Dougherty and Joseph D. O'Keefe.

The event is free to members. For more information, call Susan Warnock Thomas at 215-732-0404.
